Rehabilitation Curriculum: A Review of the Literature” appeared in Associate Professor Charlene Kampfe of our Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and School Psychology. Perfect's research focuses on education, and she is currently working on a book titled "Perfect's Education for Multicultural and Social Justice: A Critical Approach to Teaching." She is also a member of the Arizona K-12 Center. In addition, the PERC funding is matched on a 2 to 1 ratio with funds from the participating school districts.

Funding for these projects comes from donations from sponsors like Raytheon, The Erasmus Circle members, and the Arizona K-12 Center. In addition, the PERC funding is matched on a 2 to 1 ratio with funds from the participating school districts.

In the fall semester. His areas of specialization in school counseling include multicultural and social justice, prevention for homeless and near-homeless children between the ages of 8 and 22. It’s also important to remember that our students start to think about graduation. It's also important to remember that our students start to think about graduation.

Perfect's research focuses on education, and she is currently working on a book titled "Perfect's Education for Multicultural and Social Justice: A Critical Approach to Teaching." She is also a member of the Arizona K-12 Center. In addition, the PERC funding is matched on a 2 to 1 ratio with funds from the participating school districts.

If you'd like more information, contact Patricia L. Anders, Ph.D., at anders@email.arizona.edu or 520-621-7143. We can also be reached on our website: www.spa.arizona.edu.