October 2006

Happy Halloween!

ImagineCourtyard

Mark routine check-ups on your calendar, as well as healthy tips and updates on the latest developments in your area of interest, with the help of Imagine Courtyard, a new project of the University of Arizona’s College of Medicine.

In this issue, we feature staff and students from the University of Arizona College of Medicine, who share their latest research and clinical developments, as well as their personal stories and experiences. Plus, get updates on upcoming events and community initiatives.

Imagine Courtyard

Campus Highlights

Imagine Courtyard is a monthly (or so) publication of The University of Arizona College of Education.

Director of Development Nina Daldrup at available Erasmus Circle scholarship dollars for our students. It will be easier to designate your gift for SAC if you wish. (And be sure to mark your calendars for this year’s SAC holiday party!) We have added a payroll deduction option. Employee Link allows complete confidentiality.

College of Education Employees: rzenger@email.arizona.edu

The College of Education and Latin American Studies are planning a new museum and educational center to house our collections of Latin American art and artifacts. The museum will be incorporated into the new Mexico State University, and will be open to the public.

We also will celebrate eight Alumni Association recipients, and discuss ways to prepare tomorrow’s leaders of education.

Calling all members of the UA College of Education: For the next year, we will be highlighting our region’s Latino art and culture. This is an opportunity to showcase the diversity of our region and to promote cultural understanding.

Make Mealtimes Family Time

Here are a few tips to making conversation at mealtime:

- Ask questions that encourage positive conversation.
- Keep the atmosphere fun, nonconfrontational, and stress-free by focusing on neutral topics.
- Share family stories and discoveries.
- Get children to share their day.
- Don’t let cell phones or TV interfere.
- Pay attention to your children.
- Be patient and understanding.
- Check out www.makemealtimefamilytime.com

Make Mealtime Family Time

Awards: potato, tomato, pumpkin, squash, garlic, onion.

Speaking of jack o’ lanterns, want to carve a great pumpkin?

- Choose a pumpkin that is firm and heavy for its size.
- Make sure the pumpkin is a variety that is suitable for carving.
- Cut two holes, one for the mouth and one for the nose.
- Draw a face on the pumpkin and cut along the lines with a sharp knife.
- Put a light inside the pumpkin and place it on a table.
- Check out www.makemealtimefamilytime.com for more tips.

Make Mealtime Family Time

Imagine Research

Imagine Roadmaps

Imagine Education

Imagine the Possibilities!

- Imagine the Possibilities!
- Imagine Education
- Imagine Roadmaps
- Imagine Research
- Imagine Courtyard

Sign up for Imagine: www.imagine.arizona.edu

Looking for Past Issues?

October 2006

Happy Halloween!

ImagineCourtyard

Campus Highlights

Imagine Courtyard is a monthly (or so) publication of The University of Arizona College of Education.

Director of Development Nina Daldrup at available Erasmus Circle scholarship dollars for our students. It will be easier to designate your gift for SAC if you wish. (And be sure to mark your calendars for this year’s SAC holiday party!) We have added a payroll deduction option. Employee Link allows complete confidentiality.

College of Education Employees: rzenger@email.arizona.edu

The College of Education and Latin American Studies are planning a new museum and educational center to house our collections of Latin American art and artifacts. The museum will be incorporated into the new Mexico State University, and will be open to the public.

We also will celebrate eight Alumni Association recipients, and discuss ways to prepare tomorrow’s leaders of education.

Calling all members of the UA College of Education: For the next year, we will be highlighting our region’s Latino art and culture. This is an opportunity to showcase the diversity of our region and to promote cultural understanding.

Make Mealtimes Family Time

Here are a few tips to making conversation at mealtime:

- Ask questions that encourage positive conversation.
- Keep the atmosphere fun, nonconfrontational, and stress-free by focusing on neutral topics.
- Share family stories and discoveries.
- Get children to share their day.
- Don’t let cell phones or TV interfere.
- Pay attention to your children.
- Be patient and understanding.
- Check out www.makemealtimefamilytime.com

Make Mealtime Family Time

Awards: potato, tomato, pumpkin, squash, garlic, onion.

Speaking of jack o’ lanterns, want to carve a great pumpkin?

- Choose a pumpkin that is firm and heavy for its size.
- Make sure the pumpkin is a variety that is suitable for carving.
- Cut two holes, one for the mouth and one for the nose.
- Draw a face on the pumpkin and cut along the lines with a sharp knife.
- Put a light inside the pumpkin and place it on a table.
- Check out www.makemealtimefamilytime.com for more tips.

Make Mealtime Family Time

Imagine Research

Imagine Roadmaps

Imagine Education

Imagine the Possibilities!

- Imagine the Possibilities!
- Imagine Education
- Imagine Roadmaps
- Imagine Research
- Imagine Courtyard

Sign up for Imagine: www.imagine.arizona.edu

Looking for Past Issues?