Design lesson plans - Teach your lesson - Publish your lesson
Put your education to work. Develop science curriculum to benefit the Pima Air & Space Museum and local students.

- Fall Internship (August 29-December 2, 2016)
- 10 hours a week (flexible times within the week)
- Next Generation Science Standards Curriculum Development for 3rd-5th grade students
- Coordinate with local teachers to test curriculum
- Evaluate curriculum as you use it and submit brief report at end of internship
- Mileage reimbursement available for driving to schools
- Working with supportive and professional museum staff

Must have transportation to museum and be able to pass background check.
Working directly with Curator of Education.

Send resume and cover letter to Mina Stafford at mstafford@pimaair.org or 6000 E Valencia Rd Tucson, AZ 85756