The world of education is a lot bigger and brighter than you might think.

Don’t forget to check out our minors

- Adolescents, Community, and Education
  Focus: Benefits and challenges of working with children and adolescents in school and community settings.

- Leadership Studies and Practice
  Focus: Leadership theories and issues plus leadership skills needed in any career.

- Special Education and Rehabilitation
  Focus: Introduction to rehabilitation, deaf studies, and special education.

Our advisors are here for you!
Call 520-621-7865 to set up an appointment today.

www.coe.arizona.edu
B.S. Literacy, Learning, and Leadership
- Prepares graduates to work with youth and adults in settings outside of classrooms
- No application required
- Possible careers in:
  - Nonprofit agencies
  - Community programs
  - Literacy programs
  - Educational policy research

B.S.E. Special Education and Rehabilitation (Deaf Studies Focus)
- Prepares graduates to work with the deaf and hard of hearing
- Application required
- Possible careers in:
  - Interpreting
  - Counseling
  - Social Services

B.S.E. Special Education and Rehabilitation (Rehabilitation Focus)
- Prepares graduates to work with people with disabilities
- No application required
- Possible careers in:
  - Mental health centers
  - Correctional facilities
  - Social services agencies

B.A.E. Early Childhood Education
- Certification to teach grades pre-K-3
- Application required

B.A.E. Elementary Education
- Certification to teach grades 1-8
- Endorsements available in Bilingual Education and English as a Second Language
- Application required

B.S.E. Cross-Categorical Special Education
- Certification to teach special education grades K-12
- Application required

Want more info?
coe-edadvise@email.arizona.edu
www.coe.arizona.edu/mycoe
520-621-7865

"The cross-categorical professors work hand-in-hand with you as you develop your teaching philosophy and educational resources. The program produces leaders in all aspects of the special education field."
Willow L. Schroeder
Class of 2011
Special Education Teacher

We have Six undergraduate degrees with loads of job potential. Select the one that suits you best!

www.coe.arizona.edu