

Mock College Application—College Knowledge Activity

Objective: To make mentees aware of exactly what they need to do in high school in order to be a competitive candidate for college. Also to show them what a college application looks like, how much time and effort it takes to finish, and what colleges are specifically looking for in an applicant. By the end of this activity, mentees should have an idea of what they will need to do to apply for college and feel more prepared for it when they are actually going through the college application process.

List of Supplies

1. The Common App (attached)
2. Pens/pencils
3. Paper

Steps for the Activity

1. Talk to mentees about the college application. Ask them what they think colleges are going to look at when they are considering a student for entry.
2. Hand out the Common Application and explain that many colleges now use this online application which is standard all across the country.
3. Go through the App with the mentees, talking about the different aspects of it and answering any questions they may have.
4. Ask students what they could do in high school in order to fill in this application with good information. For example:
 - What kind of courses could you take to be a more competitive candidate?
 - What Merit groups could you join to put under the “Honors” section? When should you join them? How long should you be in them?
 - What extracurricular activities would you do in high school to put in the “Extracurricular Activities & Work Experiences” section? When should you start these? How long should you be in them? How far up in the group should you rise?
5. Talk to mentees about the college application essay. Discuss its importance, what it should probably be about, how it should be written, how long it should be, how much time should be devoted to it, and why it’s different from a school paper.
6. Ask mentees what they think they’d write about for their college essay. Right now these can be small or large ideas. Since they are younger than actual applicants, they probably don’t have a life-changing thing to write about yet. That’s okay. Just get them thinking about the idea and subject matter of the essay. Prompting questions may include:
 - What has been difficult in your life?
 - Have you ever had a problem that you overcame through your own ingenuity?
 - What is something that you’ve realized about yourself in the last few years?
 - What inspires you? What makes you angry?
 - What makes you unique from everyone else?
7. Work with mentees to write a short version of the college application essay until the end of class.

WRITING

Please briefly elaborate on one of your extracurricular activities or work experiences in the space below.

Please write an essay of 250 – 500 words on a topic of your choice or on one of the options listed below, and attach it to your application before submission. Please indicate your topic by checking the appropriate box. This personal essay helps us become acquainted with you as a person and student, apart from courses, grades, test scores, and other objective data. It will also demonstrate your ability to organize your thoughts and express yourself. NOTE: Your Common Application essay should be the same for all colleges. Do not customize it in any way for individual colleges. Colleges that want customized essay responses will ask for them on a supplement form.

- 1 Evaluate a significant experience, achievement, risk you have taken, or ethical dilemma you have faced and its impact on you.
- 2 Discuss some issue of personal, local, national, or international concern and its importance to you.
- 3 Indicate a person who has had a significant influence on you, and describe that influence.
- 4 Describe a character in fiction, a historical figure, or a creative work (as in art, music, science, etc.) that has had an influence on you, and explain that influence.
- 5 A range of academic interests, personal perspectives, and life experiences adds much to the educational mix. Given your personal background, describe an experience that illustrates what you would bring to the diversity in a college community or an encounter that demonstrated the importance of diversity to you.
- 6 Topic of your choice.

Additional Information Please attach a separate sheet if you wish to provide details of circumstances or qualifications not reflected in the application.

Disciplinary History

- ① Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from the 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct, that resulted in a disciplinary action? These actions could include, but are not limited to: probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from the institution. Yes No
- ② Have you ever been adjudicated guilty or convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime? Yes No
[Note that you are not required to answer “yes” to this question, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise ordered by a court to be kept confidential.]

If you answered “yes” to either or both questions, please attach a separate sheet of paper that gives the approximate date of each incident, explains the circumstances, and reflects on what you learned from the experience.

Note: Applicants are expected to immediately notify the institutions to which they are applying should there be any changes to the information requested in this application, including disciplinary history.

Evaluation Please provide comments that will help us differentiate this student from others. Feel free to attach an additional sheet or another reference you have prepared for this student. Alternatively, you may attach a reference written by another school official who can better describe the student. We especially welcome a broad-based assessment and encourage you to consider describing or addressing:

- The applicant's academic, extracurricular, and personal characteristics.
- Relevant context for the applicant's performance and involvement, such as particularities of family situation or responsibilities, after-school work obligations, sibling childcare, or other circumstances, either positive or negative.
- Observed problematic behaviors, perhaps separable from academic performance, that an admission committee should explore further.

While this evaluation is a required part of every School Report, we recognize that some school counselors face formidable challenges. If your professional circumstances render you unable to provide substantive written comments about this student, and if you are unable to substitute another school official's statement in its place, please help our member colleges better understand your situation by checking one or both of the statements below:

- I do not have sufficient personal knowledge of this student. The demands of my counseling load do not afford me sufficient time.

Please note that if a box is checked, some colleges may contact the student, explain that the box was checked, and request a substitute academic recommendation from a teacher.
